

THE METHODISTS.

THE WORK OF THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE, SOUTH.

Ordination of Deacons and Elders—Reports of Committees—Sunday Schools—Temperance.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., March 19.—The attendance upon religious services here yesterday was very large. Hundreds of people came into the town from the country surrounding until every church in the city was crowded to its utmost capacity. Bishop Wilson preached at Trinity Southern Methodist church at 11 A. M., and at the conclusion of the sermon ordained the following deacons: Charles H. Wood, T. J. Lambert, Joseph M. Rawlings, S. A. Parker, W. H. Ballance, Christopher Sydenstricker, and Charles H. Bragg.

In the same church at 4 P. M., the ordination service, after which Bishop Wilson, assisted by the presiding elder, ordained the following elders: F. J. Pretyman, C. L. Keenard, John O. Knott, W. L. Dally, George D. White, John H. Kuhlman, and S. E. Boyd.

A largely-attended and enthusiastic gospel temperance meeting was held at the Central Opera-House in the afternoon, which was addressed by Rev. Jameson Smithson of Alexandria, and W. W. Smith, president of Hampden-Macon College.

The work of the conference to-day has been given principally to the committee making reports.

The committee recommended that the Paine Institute, at Atlanta, Ga., which is an institution under the care of the Church, where educated young men are sent to the ministry. Rev. W. C. Dunlap, president of the institute, addressed the conference.

Hampden-Macon College, at Ashland, Va., was commended to the patronage of the people, and a committee to be appointed by the Bishop was suggested whose duty it should be to take under their care the young men who desired to make preparations for the ministry. The report was adopted.

The report of the missionary treasurer was presented. Twelve thousand dollars for foreign missions and $1,000 for domestic missions have been raised this year.

The report of the Committee on Sunday-School Work as presented gave the number of scholars in the schools of the conference at 46,000. There have been 1,100 conversions in the schools this year.

A communication was received from a colored congregation in Washington city, and on motion it was resolved to give them assistance, and Rev. S. W. Hadaway was appointed to receive contributions to aid in building a church.

The Committee on Temperance made a report and presented a strong paper urging efforts to be used to suppress all alcoholic drinks. The report was unanimously adopted.

Bishop Wilson was on motion requested to write a pastoral letter, to be distributed throughout the bounds of the conference, urging the necessity of better salaries being paid to the ministers.

The Women's Foreign-Missionary Association was held in the Southern Methodist church this afternoon and was addressed by Rev. Young J. Allen, of Clinton.

The anniversary of the Conference Missionary Society was held in the Methodist Episcopal church to-night, and though the building is the poorest in the city, it would not begin to hold the audience. Mr. Allen addressed this meeting also.

SAYLOR'S CASE.

The Argument Heard Yesterday.
(By telegram to the Dispatch.)

TORONTO, March 19.—The Corporation Court room was packed this morning like sardines in a box to listen to the argument in the Saylor murder trial. A surging mass of humanity was on the outside, but unlike the street-car, there was no room for one more. At 9 o'clock Judge Blackwell took his seat on the bench. The jury was brought in, and nothing more was heard than the sound of the gavel.

Mr. Anderson, of Iowa, offered a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the construction of a bridge across the Tennessee river at Chattanooga. The bill was referred to the Committee on Civil Service and Retrenchment.

Mr. Teller introduced a bill for the admission of the State of Wyoming into the Union. Referred to the Committee on Territories.
